

United Way of York County's Emerging Leaders Society is a network of young professionals (from 21 to 40-ish) who share a passion for advancing community solutions to build a stronger York County.

Through unique networking events, hands-on volunteering opportunities and innovative leadership trainings, members leverage the power of United Way to connect, serve and grow – both personally and professionally.

Membership Benefits

- Access to prominent community leaders
- Networking, educational and volunteer events
- Leadership & professional development opportunities
- Recognition in United Way of York County publications

Membership Criteria

- Individuals between the age of 21-40ish who contribute $250 or more to United Way of York County
- Interest in community involvement and a desire to make a long-lasting, positive change in York County

Robert Innerst,
and Andrew
Kopplitz, Chair

Day of Action and
the Holiday Volunteer Project

YES! I want to become an Emerging Leaders Society member

Name _____

Company _____

Home Address _____

Cell Phone _____ Yes, please add me to text communications

Email Address _____

Please send to Zach Reynolds, Emerging Leaders Society Liaison, at reynoldsz@unitedway-york.org or call 717.771.3812

LIVE UNITED