THANKS TO YOU...

What would you do if taking a job meant losing your childcare?

When she was a student at York Day Early Learning, Sierra never dreamed that she'd be teaching there one day. She was grateful for the high-quality childcare that she received and wanted to pay it forward for the next generation.

Of course, she also wanted that same experience for her own son, Malakai. However, she realized that she could not afford to work full-time and send her son to daycare.

Thanks to your gift, Sierra was able to give Malakai that same great start to life that she received through our childcare scholarship program.

You changed Sierra and Malakai's lives and allowed Malakai to receive high-quality childcare, and enabled Sierra to maintain her employment at York Day.

Now the same teachers that impacted Sierra's life are doing the same for her son.
