

WORKING TOGETHER FOR WHAT'S NEXT.

ONE BARRIER CAN SET A WORKING HOUSEHOLD BACK. YOUR GIFT CAN HELP REMOVE IT.

Across York County, many people are working hard and still struggling to stay financially stable. A gap in childcare, unreliable transportation, an unexpected bill, or the stress of navigating household finances can make it harder to keep working and move forward.

United Way of York County is Working Together for What's Next by bringing employees, employers, nonprofits, and community partners together to help local households overcome barriers that stand between today's challenges and tomorrow's stability.

Your gift helps connect people to practical supports like childcare scholarships, transportation assistance, free tax preparation, financial coaching, and resource navigation.

When you support United Way of York County, you're helping individuals and households in our community stay employed, care for their children, and build a more stable future.

THANKS TO YOU...

After being diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis, Tiffany began using a mobility scooter and quickly realized how inaccessible much of her community was.

Through the support of donors like you, United Way of York County was able to provide a transportation grant which allowed her municipality to make necessary repairs to a ramp. This significantly opened up Tiffany's world, and even inspired her to join her local borough council to help advance other important initiatives.

When we work together for what's next, we can change lives. Together, we can break down barriers and build pathways for local, hardworking households to succeed.
